

The Deutsche Bank Urban Age Award

Mumbai 2007

Jury

A Passion to Perform.

Deutsche Bank

The Deutsche Bank Urban Age Award

01

Ricky Burdett (Jury Chair)

Richard Burdett is Centennial Professor in Architecture and Urbanism at the London School of Economics and Director of the Urban Age programme. He is founding director of the LSE Cities Programme, a research and teaching centre which explores links between architecture, urban design and urban society. His latest appointment is as Chief Adviser on Architecture and Urbanism for the London 2012 Olympics. Previously he was architectural adviser to the Mayor of London from 2001 - 2006, member of the Greater London Authority's Architecture + Urbanism Unit and sat on the City of Barcelona's Quality Committee. Burdett was founder of the 9H Gallery and the Architecture Foundation in London, and has been a key player in promoting design excellence amongst public and private sector organisations in the UK and Europe. He was Director of the 2006 Architecture Biennale in Venice on the subject of 'Cities: architecture and society' and curator of the 'Global Cities' exhibition in Tate Modern in 2007. He is also chairman of the Jury for the 2007 Mies van der Rohe Prize.

Shabana Azmi

Shabana Azmi is a Mumbai-based leading actress and social activist. She has won the Indian National Film Award for Best Actress five times, and has also won four Filmfare Awards. Outside India, she has won the Silver Hugo Award for Best Actress at the Chicago Film Festival and the Jury Award for Best Actress at Outfest, Los Angeles. She is a strong advocate of religious tolerance and harmony, and has worked extensively with Mumbai's slum-dwellers. She was awarded the Padma Shri, a national honour from the government of India. She has served as a member of the Rajya Sabha, the upper house of the Indian parliament. She is a member of the National Integration Council and the National AIDS Commission. She is also Goodwill Ambassador for the United Nations Population Fund. She was recently awarded the Gandhi Foundation International Peace Award for her work with the slum-dwellers of Mumbai.

The Deutsche Bank Urban Age Award

02

Rahul Mehrotra

Rahul Mehrotra is an architect and divides his time between Mumbai and the U.S. He is currently Associate Professor of Architecture at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He is founder of Rahul Mehrotra Associates, a Mumbai-based architectural practice. RMA has received two honorary mentions for the Kenneth F. Brown Asia Pacific Culture and Architecture Design Award 2000, and also a J.K. Cements Award. The projects of the firm have been exhibited all over the world including the RIBA in London, the Arts Biennale in Shanghai and the Aedes Gallery in Berlin. Rahul Mehrotra has also written extensively on Mumbai, authoring, co-authoring and editing several books including Bombay: The Cities Within, Bombay to Mumbai: Changing Perspectives, The Architecture of the 20th Century in the South Asian Region etc. He is a member of the Board of Governors of the Bombay Metropolitan Regional Development Authority's Heritage Society, and a member of the Committee that advises the Mumbai Municipal Commissioner on heritage conservation. Mehrotra has served on the Master Jury for the Aga Khan Award, the Jury for the Berkley Prize, and the Jury for the James Stirling Prize on the city.

Suketu Mehta

Suketu Mehta is currently an Associate Professor at New York University. He is the author of Maximum City: Bombay Lost and Found, which won the Kiriyaama Prize and the Hutch Crossword Award, and was a finalist for the 2005 Pulitzer Prize, the Letter Ulysses Prize, the BBC4 Samuel Johnson Prize, and the Guardian First Book Award. His other work has won many honours including the O. Henry Prize, and has been published in the New York Times Magazine, National Geographic, Granta, Harpers Magazine, Time, and Condé Nast Traveler. Mehta is currently working on a non-fiction book about immigrants in contemporary New York, for which he was awarded a 2007 Guggenheim fellowship. He has also written an original screenplay for 'The Goddess', a Merchant-Ivory film, and 'Mission Kashmir', a Bollywood movie. Mehta was born in Calcutta and has lived in Mumbai and New York. He has served on the Brendan Gill Award Jury.

The Deutsche Bank Urban Age Award

03

Enrique Norten

Enrique Norten is an architect and currently holds the Miller Chair of Architecture at the University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia. He is the founder of TEN Arquitectos, and has worked extensively in Mexico City, New York and elsewhere. He has received the Mies van der Rohe Award, a Gold Medal from the Society of American Registered Architects, and the Leonardo da Vinci World Award of Arts by the World Cultural Council, along with numerous other honours. He has held the O'Neal Ford Chair in Architecture at the University of Texas, Austin, and the Lorch Professor of Architecture Chair at the University of Michigan. Norten has served on numerous award juries including for the World Trade Center Site Memorial Competition in New York City, and the Holcim Award. Current projects include the Guggenheim Museum (Guadalajara, Mexico); a new vision for Rutgers University's College Avenue Campus (New Brunswick, NJ) and a plan for the recovery of a 4.5-mile stretch of the New Orleans Riverfront (New Orleans, LA).

Anthony Williams

Anthony A. Williams is Chief Executive Officer of Primum Public Realty Trust, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Friedman, Billings, Ramsey Group, Inc. He co-founded Primum Public Realty Trust in 2007 with FBR as a real estate entity focused on buying and leasing back government and not-for-profit real estate. Prior to joining FBR, Mr. Williams served two terms as the fourth Mayor of the District of Columbia from January 1999 through December 2006. While in office, Mayor Williams was elected president of the Washington, DC-based National League of Cities in December 2004. Anthony Williams served as the District of Columbia Chief Financial Officer (CFO) from October 1995 through June 1998. As CFO and Mayor, he led the District to financial recovery. Williams restored fiscal accountability for District agencies and balanced the city's budget. His work put the city on track for the return to self-government – two years earlier than projected – and delivered a surplus of $185 million in fiscal year 1997. Prior to serving as Mayor, Mr. Williams was appointed by President Clinton and confirmed by the Senate to serve as the first CFO for the US Department of Agriculture as well as a founder and Vice Chairman of the U.S. CFO Council. He served as the Deputy State Comptroller of Connecticut, where he was responsible for the management of 250 separate funds and the state's budget and accounting services. In 1997, Governing Magazine named him Public Official of the Year. He is also on the award jury for the 2007 Opus Prize.